

Occupational Health & Safety Policy

I, Herbert R. Jacque, of Makkovik Inuit Community Government am ultimately responsible for workers' occupational health and safety at the workplace. I will strive to protect workers from injury and illness related to work; and I will provide the resources necessary to keep the workplace healthy and safe. To fulfill this Commitment, Makkovik Inuit Community Government will make every effort to Provide and maintain a safe and healthy workplace by following industry standards And complying with OH &S legislation. In keeping with OH&S legislation, a healthy And safe workplace will be created in consultation and cooperation with management And workers, in particular the health and safety representative/designate or committee.

Supervisors will be held accountable for the health and safety of employees under their Supervision. Responsibilities include ensuring machinery and equipment are safe and Established safe work practices are followed. To protect their health and safety, employees must receive an OH&S orientation and specific work task training.

Every employee must protect his/her health and safety and the health and safety of Other employees by following legislative requirements and safe work practices and by Reporting unsafe conditions they observe.

Contractors will be required to meet legislative requirements and follow Makkovik Inuit Community Government's policies and procedures regarding health and safety.

Health and safety is an integral part of this firm's every day business. It is in the best Interest of all to join together and put into practice health and safety principles in all Work activities.

This OH&S policy will be reviewed on an annual basis and revised as necessary.

Signed:

Herbert R. Jacque
